The great wrestling match at the opera house last evening was a splendid exhibition of scientific and muscular development which was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present, as was testified by the frequent applause.

Mr. J. B. King, the well known sporting editor of the Kansas City Times, and who gave such general satisfaction as referee in the wrestling match last evening by his fair and impartial decisions, returns home this evening to Kansas City. Mr. King is a clever and popular gentleman and made many friends during his brief visit to this city.

Capt. Wm. F. Tibbitts, who is the representative of "the scenic line of the world," the Denver & Rio Grande railway, is again in the city shaking hands with his host of friends. The captain is one of the most successful excursionists on the road, and his excursions are especially popular with the ladies. His next excursion to California leaves Denver on January 9, and it will include a number of persons from this city.

To the Citizens of Wichita and Vicinity.
We wish it known that we have located a branch nursery at Wichita, and that we mean business and have come to stay. We intend making Wichita a distributing point. We ask for nothing but your patronage.

Parties wanting stock will do well to take a look at the samples of our stock on exhibition at the east end of the iron bridge opposite the Riverside hotel and get our prices. They will find it to their interest to buy direct from a responsible nurseryman, especially a home nursery. Avoid buying of dealers and tree peddlers. We guarantee our stock to be first-class in every particular. We make a specialty of setting and guaranteeing stock, particularly evergreens. Our stock of shade and ornamental trees and shrubs is full and complete.

W. C. Shaw and R. H. Southwell are our duly authorized agents, and any others who may hereafter be employed will be furnished with a certificate of authority under the nursery seal. Any orders entrusted to them we will be responsible for. Headquarters at the Commercial hotel until further notice.
